

SHADOW RIDGE REVUE

April 2002

WELCOME TO SPRING!

THIS MONTH'S NEWS

Lessons

A few weeks ago the sand rings were clear and starting to dry up nicely. We even had a few jumps up. That was until we got the latest heavy snowfalls. However, we are hoping to resume regular Spring lessons weeknights starting the last week of April (depending on our unpredictable weather). So for those of you who took the Winter off, call and check the day and times of your lessons. New students always welcome.

CAMPS

Camps have started filling up. Register early to avoid disappointment. There are only 4 Day Camp and 6 Residential places each week and some have already been taken (i.e. week 9 already has its quota of Day spots taken, so if you want this week, you will have to come as a Residential camper).

WINTER WORKSHOPS

This month's workshop (the last in the series) on the subject of "Showing Your Horse" will be held on April 20th. Our guest speaker for this workshop will be Natalie Bergman. We will have time to spend grooming the horses after the presentation. Cost is only $30 for the morning.

HORSE TALK

We are just waiting for the Show Book to come out and then we can pick the dates for the shows we will be attending. Natalie has already started to have some show team meetings. The first one was a trip to Apple Saddlery and Greenhawk, so that the girls could purchase their necessary clothes and accessories. It was a fun afternoon.

THIS MONTH'S HORSE

Featuring: Tuscon

Tuscon is a very handsome, black, Canadian / Quarter Horse cross pony. He is about 11 years old and stands 14.1 hh. He is very solidly built and has the thick neck of the Canadian breed. He can carry children or adults with no problem.

He is a very cute jumper and is very tidy over fences.

We have had Tuscon for almost a year now. He came to us from a riding school in Chelsea, Quebec. We used him for the camps and lessons last year. He has quite a few admirers out there.

This summer he is going to be shown by Breanna Holzschere and I'm sure they would both appreciate your support at the shows.
