

SHADOW RIDGE REVUE

April 2003

Spring is here at last!

THIS MONTH'S NEWS

We had a large crowd out to the grand opening of our new arena on Sunday, April 6th. Our show team gave a demonstration of a musical ride and we had some of our other students showing how much fun they have riding. We also launched two new programs:

- 1) Ladies Lessons and Boarding
- 2) Badge Awards (combines riding skills with practical and theoretical knowledge of horses and riding)

Our new line of T-shirts and ball caps are now on sale. T-shirts are available in Royal Blue, Light Blue, Red and White and the ball caps are in Royal Blue only at this time.

CAMPS

Sign up soon to avoid disappointment. We only have very small groups each week, and we are already 25% full.

Details can be found on the website:

WORKSHOPS

We will now be running the workshops as part of the Badge Awards program. There will be 5 workshops (one for each badge level). Once there are 5 students signed up, we will run the workshop. Details will be on the website in the near future.

HORSE TALK

We have 2 new horses. Rembrandt, an Oldenburg gelding and Nevada who is an Appaloosa gelding.

Thanks to the show team for the beautiful horseshoes that they painted, to put up in the tack room to identify the saddles, and for everyone who worked hard helping to prepare for the Open House.

Show Team Meeting – Friday, April 25 at 8:45 pm. If you are considering showing this year please join us for this meeting.

THIS MONTH'S HORSE

Featuring: Bright Angel

Bright Angel is only 4 years old. She is a white and brown paint mare and is already 15.3hh. We expect she will mature at 16hh. She is very quiet but does not know very much right now, so we are only using her for advanced riders. We hope to have her in the lesson program by next year. We got her name from the trail at the Grand Canyon in Arizona that we visited a few years ago – Bright Angel Trail. Her name says it all, she is an angel – very sweet and lovable.
