SPRING IS HERE!

THIS MONTH'S NEWS

Summer Camps:

Camps are over 80% full - register now and don't be disappointed. Also, new this summer we are doing a Ladies Choice Summer Camp at the end of August for those "girls" who are over 16. See details at: <http://www.shadow-ridge.ca/ladiescamps.html>

Exciting News!

We recently discovered that Cheyenna is expecting a foal in May. As we got her last June she must just have been bred, as it takes 11 months. We are now looking forward to having a little foal around the barn this summer.

The Big Show II

A date has finally been set for Saturday, May 14th, 2005 for our annual Big Show. This year we will be featuring approximately eight - ten acts, which will include demonstrations of bareback riding, dressage to music, jumping, games on horseback and even a musical ride. This is an opportunity for all our riders, who have ridden all through the winter, to demonstrate their abilities to friends, relatives and the general public.

WORKSHOPS

As part of the Badge Awards program, there will be 5 workshops (one for each badge level). These workshops run from November to April each year.

HORSE TALK

We recently discovered that Cherokee likes water. We had so much water recently that we had a "lake" in the winter field. One day Cherokee decided to lie down and it looked like she was swimming. Then she got up and pawed the water, splashing herself. She did this for about 5 minutes, giving Ted just enough time to get out the video camera.

THIS MONTH'S HORSE

Featuring: Lord Standish

Lord Standish is our herd leader (boss man). He is 8 years old and is 15hh. He is named after my hometown in England. Standish is an excellent jumper and we did take him to a few shows last year. This photo is of Melanie riding him at one of the shows (note his nice braids). However, he thought he had to take care of all the horses at the show so he got really stressed out. We have decided that he is much happier staying at home. We use him for lessons and camps.
