

SHADOW RIDGE REVUE

August 2003

Summer is almost over!

THIS MONTH'S NEWS

We are getting ready for our new Fall season. New students, and new instructors coming along to fill in for Tim Sheridan who is still on the RCMP Musical Ride.

Carole Gagnon will be leaving this weekend to study in Toronto and we will miss her a lot. She has been a valued member on our show team as well as recently teaching one group of students. Many thanks Carole for a job well done.

Carolyn Bredin will replace Carole on Tuesdays, for a few weeks or so.

We have also been fortunate in having Dawn Finnigan help out with the coaching on Fridays until we find a replacement. Cindy Duffy will continue on Mondays, but we are still looking for someone for Wednesday and Fridays nights.

CAMPS

Residential camps are over for this year. We have already started to receive registrations for 2004, so sign up soon to avoid disappointment. Details and dates are on the website. Also check out the details for the March Break Day Camp.

Details for both can be found on the website:

WORKSHOPS

As part of the Badge Awards program, there will be 5 workshops (one for each badge level). We will run the workshops in the fall. Details are on the website at:

HORSE TALK

We will be taking 15 students to show at the Perth Fair on Sunday, August 31, 2003. They are all excited and looking forward to doing their best in various classes from walk, trot to jumping classes. Come out and give them your support.

We have recently sold Sir Tarquinn to Huntleigh Equestrian Centre.

THIS MONTH'S HORSE

Featuring: Carleton With Honours

Carleton was born on June 13, 2003. He was named Carleton With Honours as he was born on the day that our daughter, Melanie graduated from Carleton University with an Honours degree in Applied Linguistics. He was born at 2:00 am and we were all in the barn to assist Bright Angel deliver him. We had only found out 10 days before that she was expecting a foal, so he was our surprise baby. He is a strong, healthy foal and is now halter broke and learning to lead. As we were not anticipating having a foal, we have decided to sell him, so he will be going to his new home in September. All our campers have enjoyed petting him this summer. We will miss him.
