

SHADOW RIDGE REVUE

January 2004

Welcome to Winter!

THIS MONTH'S NEWS

Well, we have finally got some snow and with it has come the cold weather. Very cold. Lessons have been affected, with the extreme cold and very high winds, making it impossible to ride some evenings. The good news is we are half way through January so the days are getting longer and hopefully the cold spell will soon break.

We are still planning to do the "Big Show" which is scheduled for February 29th. We may have to postpone it until March if we miss too many more lessons.

Don't forget to sign up for the March Break Day Camp, which is coming very soon.

CAMPS

Residential camps - We have already started to receive registrations for 2004, so sign up soon to avoid disappointment. Details and dates are on the website. Also check out the details for the March Break Day Camp.

Details for both can be found on the website:

WORKSHOPS

As part of the Badge Awards program, there will be 5 workshops (one for each badge level). Next Workshop for the Yellow Ribbon will be January 24, 2004 so sign up soon. Details are on the website at: <http://www.shadow-ridge.ca/workshops.html>.

HORSE TALK

We recently sold Precious Moments and picked up a new horse called Scottsdale. He is performing very well, and we hope to use him for the beginner riders in the near future. Pictures of Phoenix, Jasmine, Starbuck and Watch the Sunrise are now up on the website. Sorry, still haven't got one of Scottsdale yet.

THIS MONTH'S HORSE

Featuring: Phoenix

Phoenix is a 4 year old, 15hh QH gelding. He is black with a white star. He is very friendly and responsive. He has really nice movement and we have great hopes of him being ready to show next year. We are hoping to be able to use him for beginners when he has had a bit more experience, as he seems to be very quiet.
