HORSE TALK

The Big Show 2005:

We are hoping to do another "Big Show" sometime in April. All students who have ridden throughout the winter will be eligible to participate. Last year's was a great success and well attended by parents, friends and visitors. We did a variety of performances ridden to music and this year we will follow the same format. It should be a fun time after all this cold weather.

THIS MONTH'S HORSE

Featuring: Apache Girl

Apache is everyone's favourite pony. She is about 14.2hh and is 13 yrs old. Apache is the horse we have had the longest. She is mainly white with gray/brown spots and patches. We called her Apache Girl because she was indeed "A Patchy Girl". Apache is ridden by beginners in our lessons and camps, but she is also a very good show pony. In 2003 she finished 4th in the School Horse Division on the Ottawa Valley Primary Schooling Show Circuit ridden by Breanna Holzschere. The photo above shows her ridden at the Ashlands show in September by 10 yr old Jennifer Rogers. This was one of Jennifer's first shows and they did really well - 4 ribbons that day.
