

SHADOW RIDGE REVUE

January 2008

Hello 2008!

THIS MONTH'S NEWS

This year we have decided to run a March Break Day Camp. This is open to children 10 –16 years old who can already ride (must be able to at least walk and trot). Spaces are filling up fast and there are now only four spaces still available. Registrations are on a first come first served basis so check out the website for full details.

WORKSHOPS

As part of the Ribbons of Achievement program, there will be five workshops (one for each ribbon level), which run from November to April each year. The next one (White Ribbon) is on February 16, 2008 and the topic is: "Tack and Horse's Health". Call or email to sign up now.

HORSE TALK

We can't wait for Spring to come so that we can continue with Rhyley's training. We have had the saddle and bridle on him and have started to put driving reins on, but have now decided to wait until it's a little warmer before continuing. The plan is to be riding him before summer if all goes well. Alison Lee is going to be helping with this.

THIS MONTH'S HORSE

Featuring: Sassy

SASSY is a pretty 11 year-old, Red Leopard Appaloosa. She stands about 14.1hh. Sassy can be used for intermediate beginner riders and up. She is good on trails and is used in jumping lessons. We use her for both lessons and camps. Shown here ridden by Kaitlynn Whitby at camp last summer.
