

SHADOW RIDGE REVUE

JULY 2003

It's Hot Hot Hot!

THIS MONTH'S NEWS

Our residential camps are now underway and we are very busy. We have quite a few new students join our lesson program in the past few weeks.

Laura has recently left us, owing to health reasons, so we have had Carole Gagnon (Tuesdays) and Heather Miebach (Wednesdays) filling in for us until they go to College/University in September. Thanks girls.

Tim will now not be back from the RCMP Musical Ride until November 2nd, so we are trying to find a replacement from now until then. We are hoping that Cindy and Jason may be able to continue on until then.

CAMPS

Residential camps are full for this year. Sign up soon for 2004, to avoid disappointment, as we only have small groups each week. Also check out the details for the March Break Day Camp.

Details for both can be found on the website:

WORKSHOPS

As part of the Badge Awards program, there will be 5 workshops (one for each badge level). We will run the workshops in the fall. Details are on the website at:

HORSE TALK

The show team went to the Spindrift Farm show on July 5 and the Westar Farm show on July 19. They did really well and got a lot of ribbons. Congratulations to them all and especially to Carole who won the School Horse Reserve Champion ribbon at Spindrift. Come and cheer on the team at the next show on August 2nd at Springbok Stables in Carp.

THIS MONTH'S HORSE

Featuring: SKYE

SKYE is a beautiful Arab/Paint cross mare. She is grey and white, about 15hh and is 5 years old. Just before we got her she had had a foal and then another mare stole her foal off her. This is such a sad story but she has now adjusted well to being in a school and has been used for two camps already this summer. She is just starting to do small jump courses. Everyone loves this horse and she certainly likes the attention.
